M.A. STEWART & SONS LTD ACQUIRE THE ASSETS OF WESTVALE INDUSTRIAL SUPPLY

October 31, 2019

PRESS RELEASE

Dan Hardy, President / CEO of M.A. Stewart & Sons Ltd. and Harold Whittell, President of Westvale Industrial Supply are proud to announce that M.A. Stewart have acquired all the assets and business of Westvale Industrial Supply. This transaction completed on October 31, 2019.

We are delighted to be partnering with Westvale who have a proven track record as an Industrial Supplier of control valves, automated valves and accessory packages, specialty piping systems and unique custom made OEM fabrications, serving all major industries throughout British Columbia. Our two companies share the core values of integrity and exceptional customer service and we are excited about this opportunity and expanding our mutual resources to build on Westvale's success and proven platform.

Westvale will be a wholly-owned division of M.A. Stewart & Sons Ltd. and will operate as it has in the past and Harold has agreed to stay on for at least a year as the General Manager.

Please join me in welcoming all the Westvale employees to the M.A. Stewart Group of Companies family.
